The beautiful flower arrangements that dress our altar this morning were provided by The Wheeler Family in memory of their mother, Elizabeth Wheeler. Below is a message from her children:

In memory of our beloved Mother, Elizabeth Wheeler.

She was always there for us and would always put her family first. She was also loved by her grandchildren and great grandchildren. She was a gift from God not only for her family, but for everyone she met. She was a loyal parishioner of CUMC for over 54 years. She filled the church with her lovely voice singing in the choir. We are sure she was greeted with the phrase “Well done, good and faithful servant,” when she arrived in heaven.
